Choose Ye This Day Between Truth and Error.

Choose Ye This Day Whom Ye Will Serve... If Jehovah Be God, Serve Him! (Joshua xxiv, 15).

Washington, D. C., March 13.—Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, New York, preacher here yesterday to splendid audience.

God forbid that we should bury any of the doctrines of Christ and his twelve apostles! On the contrary let us strive to resurrect these from the rubbish of tawdry traditions.

These bright lights are not merely for the Christian forces. They are active agents in the promulgation of anti-Biblical teachings.

Baptists and Disciples Awakening. When we say that this awakening is also reaching our Baptist and our Disciple churches, we mean that all of these have been asleep until now.

It is necessary for our Methodist brethren to gradually leave the Christian faith—the eternal truths of our faith—concluding that the creeds truly represented the Bible.

Choose Ye This Day Whom Ye Will Serve. Joshua's words to the Israelites, after they had come into Canaan, concern the text.

ADDY's said Jack, "did we ever have a big flood in this country like Noah's flood?"

"Once upon a time," began daddy, "there was a little girl who lived on a farm near a river..."

"You guessed right," said daddy. "You see, when her father and mother visited Ruth they thought that she must have been carried off by the flood..."

We are not here to claim a new revelation, but to re-assert the old revelation through Jesus and the Apostles...

Things at Which We Gagged... Men and women do not find it difficult to believe in a just, loving God...

Spiritually we gagged at the suggestion that a God of all wisdom, love, justice and power ever created our race...

Let us not then stop to find fault with the Bible, which we have so often rejected as rather so far as possible...

Mark St. Paul's words, "The God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not..."

The "Gospel of Christ" of which St. Paul was not unmindful, that Gospel has two distinct features...

This great blessing will be a universal opportunity for salvation. It will not be an invitation in insurance and heathen superstition...

PASTOR RUSSELL'S DISCOURSE ON PENTECOSTAL BLESSINGS

GREAT WHITSUNDAY SERMON AT ALBERT MEMORIAL HALL

London, Eng., May 15th.—Albert Memorial Hall recognized as the largest modern auditorium in the world, was crowded today to hear Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle, New York, on "Pentecostal Blessings"...

God's favor, and such of his fellowship, but one could be received into full sonship and joint-heirship with Christ, until first their sin had been cancelled. Then they could be accepted as children on the terms which the Father has appointed.

From the standpoint of Divine Justice, the apostles and believers were still under the sentence of God's wrath at the time of our Lord's death, at the time of his resurrection, at the time of his ascension, at the time of his coming again to earth, and at the time of his coming again to earth.

The church, under Christ her Lord, God's kingdom, not yet set up or established in the world, is now being inaugurated by the Holy Spirit...

separated between Jew and Gentile. Even then he could not be received of God because of his works, or prayers, or alms, but must first be instructed respecting Christ and his resurrection...

That it was that, in harmony with our Redeemer's promise, St. Peter used the "key" which introduced the Gentiles to the Pentecostal blessings. As he used the first key on the Day of Pentecost in opening to the multitude of Jews the meaning of the Pentecostal blessings...

I rejoice with you today, fellow-students of the Word of God, that this great gift of God is still obtainable, and that the door is now being opened to the Gentiles...

TRUTH

No. 5.

There are two sure roads to wealth. One is by inheritance and the other by investment.

The man who INHERITS a large sum of money or property which yields him a goodly return is to be congratulated.

BUT, The man to be doubly congratulated is the INVESTOR—the WISE INVESTOR—who recognizes the opportunity to place his cash, whatever the sum may be, where it will bring him safe, sure and good returns.

The history of America—in fact of the world—shows that the greatest fortunes have been made in oil. California, prodigally rich in this mineral, has made within the past three years fortunes for those shrewd enough to invest in oil lands and stocks.

You are afforded an opportunity to invest your savings or surplus funds in an oil company that promises to reap large returns. Never before, and probably never again, will you have the same chance.

Written by CHARLES T. RUSSELL. Pastor Brooklyn Temple, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Although the Christian regarded his special allegiance to the Heavenly King and sets his affection chiefly upon the heavenly home, he has been called to the earth's growing creation of a very select people, his brethren, to whom he is to be sent as a witness of the love of God for America, and the neck of an instrument which is his Christ before the nations of humanity.

Let us see on the unwarranted assumption that we are not the free the Kingdom of God as established on earth; but in us as an authority which binds all of America's thoughts and enlightenment and education, and we are to be the peer and the rock, the firmest part of the earth, upon which we are to stand. Let us, in all that we do, be the witness of the love of God for America, and the neck of an instrument which is his Christ before the nations of humanity.

Awake, O Sleeper!
Pastor Russell's Discourse.
 Text, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light" (Ephesians 5, 14).

New Britain, Conn., June 28. Pastor Russell of Brooklyn, Tennessee, addressed here today the members of the "Awake, O Sleeper!" society. The text of his discourse was Ephesians 5:14, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light." The subject of his discourse was "Awake, O Sleeper!"

He said that the "awake" mentioned in the text is not the man who is awake in the ordinary sense of the word, but the man who is awake in the spiritual sense. He said that the "awake" mentioned in the text is the man who is awake in the spiritual sense, and who is awake in the spiritual sense.

"Awake, O Sleeper!"
 In our discourse we will see how we can awake in the spiritual sense. We will see how we can awake in the spiritual sense, and how we can awake in the spiritual sense.

"Awake, O Sleeper!"
 We will see how we can awake in the spiritual sense. We will see how we can awake in the spiritual sense, and how we can awake in the spiritual sense.

Pastor Russell in Sweden.
The Ascension, an English weekly magazine (Edition no. 8), has published the following account of the late Rev. Dr. Russell's visit to Sweden.

The disciples had heard the force of the message and they were full of desire to do the will of God. They were full of desire to do the will of God.

We must have had some fear of the Lord as to what kind of spirit would be manifested in the hearts of those who would proceed to specify and to assume the responsibility of such a gift. "But he gave us the gift to be loved and not to be feared."

"This message is for all men and women." "This message is for all men and women." "This message is for all men and women."

We were told that the late Rev. Dr. Russell had given us the gift to be loved and not to be feared. We were told that the late Rev. Dr. Russell had given us the gift to be loved and not to be feared.

These great lessons received from the late Rev. Dr. Russell have been a source of inspiration to us. These great lessons received from the late Rev. Dr. Russell have been a source of inspiration to us.

It was a privilege to be in the presence of the late Rev. Dr. Russell. It was a privilege to be in the presence of the late Rev. Dr. Russell. It was a privilege to be in the presence of the late Rev. Dr. Russell.
